"For years, we are facing in our Euro-Mediterranean region and East Africa, the painful issue of migrants and refugees fleeing poverty, war, persecution ...-----

Every day, our associations and foundations fighting against these scourges and concretely act by providing food aid, clothing, shelter, care, training, school accompaniment, psychological and social supports.-----

We give hope to children by organising fun activities through summer camps or children's villages "Buddy the world" initiated by the French Secours Populaire.-----

Our efforts are in line with the duration of the implementation of sustainable development programs. Misery and poverty have no borders. This is a fight that is won and we take it very actively.-----

We want to develop solidarity for all these children, these women and men suffering and wandering and in particular with the active participation of children and youth. The 16 members of the "Euro-Mediterranean Network of solidarity" join the appeal of the French Secours Populaire to work together, hand in hand. Thank you for your support. "
